

He's Alive!

The Life, Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ

Who was Jesus Christ? Some say he was a prophet, while others thought he was merely a good teacher. The religious leaders of the day accused him of deceiving the Jewish people with his miracles and teachings. They had to silence the man from Nazareth because he claimed to be God himself.

To the poor, the sick, the lame, the blind and those who recognized their own sinfulness, Jesus became their only hope. Many followed him throughout the countrysides of Judea and Galilee, listening to his teachings and yearning for his touch. He singled out twelve men as his disciples. One would betray him, another would deny him.

Follow Deanna Storfie of Acting Up! Drama as she recounts the events that led up to Christ's death and resurrection as seen through the eyes of one of his followers. Mary Magdalene was delivered from seven demons (Luke 8:1-3) and became a devoted follower of Jesus, convinced, along with the disciples, that he was the Son of God. But why would God let his Son die such an agonizing death on a Roman cross? Three days later Mary would discover the answer to that question.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world but to save the world through him." John 3:16 NIV

www.actingupdrama.ca

He's Alive!

The Life, Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ

Who was Jesus Christ? Some say he was a prophet, while others thought he was merely a good teacher. The religious leaders of the day accused him of deceiving the Jewish people with his miracles and teachings. They had to silence the man from Nazareth because he claimed to be God himself.

To the poor, the sick, the lame, the blind and those who recognized their own sinfulness, Jesus became their only hope. Many followed him throughout the countrysides of Judea and Galilee, listening to his teachings and yearning for his touch. He singled out twelve men as his disciples. One would betray him, another would deny him.

Follow Deanna Storfie of Acting Up! Drama as she recounts the events that led up to Christ's death and resurrection as seen through the eyes of one of his followers. Mary Magdalene was delivered from seven demons (Luke 8:1-3) and became a devoted follower of Jesus, convinced, along with the disciples, that he was the Son of God. But why would God let his Son die such an agonizing death on a Roman cross? Three days later Mary would discover the answer to that question.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world but to save the world through him." John 3:16 NIV

www.actingupdrama.ca